

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ENGINEER, IRRIGATION & WATER RESOURCES
DEPARTMENT, GOVERNMENT OF MIZORAM

DETAILS OF COMPLAINT OF SECTION 4(1)(b) OF RTI ACT, 2005 FOR THE YEAR 2025-2026

4.(1)(b)(i) the particulars of its organization, functions and duties.

Irrigation & Water Resources Department, Mizoram had a humble beginning as a wing under Agriculture Department in September, 1984. Initially, the wing had one division with headquarters at Aizawl and two sub-divisions namely, Aizawl and Serchhip sub-divisions. There had been incremental expansion over the years and by the time Irrigation & Water Resources Department was created by way of bifurcating Agriculture Department in May, 2007, there are four working divisions and nine sub-divisions headed by Joint Director in the headquarters. Subsequently, Irrigation & Water Resources Department, Mizoram have been strengthened and restructured into full-fledged Technical Department; presently, the Department is headed by Chief Engineer who is supported by two Superintending Engineers, five Executive Engineers, Deputy Director (Admn.), Finance & Accounts Officer and Research Officer in the headquarters. In the fields, there are four working divisions and ten sub-divisions for execution of the various schemes under Irrigation & Water Resources Department.

Functions & duties

- To provide assured irrigation facility for increased production of food grains and other crops.
- To provide sustainable farming alternatives to shifting cultivation and to usher in permanent cultivation through construction of basic infrastructures like irrigation systems, approach roads & farm roads, broad-bed and bench terraces etc. for development of all potential areas including hillside cultivation within Minor Irrigation Project Command Areas.
- To protect agricultural lands along the banks of mountain streams and rivers from stream bank erosion and land subsidence caused by flood during monsoon.
- To collect, store, analyze and collate hydro-meteorological data to generate reliable database which is indispensable for planning and implementation of all water resource related schemes and programmes.

4.(1)(b)(ii) the power and duties of its officers and employees.
